I bought this for hoped for coverage on Kreiss ceramics and there are photos and outdated prices, but not much info or as many photos as I had expected. Sadly, I can't suggest a better resource at this point.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Very Nice Picture- Price Guide on Ceramic CollectiblesBy Irvin GoodmanNew 192 page volume with year 2,000 pricing. Contains more than 600 full color, sharp, large photos of every category of ceramic. Covers ceramics from Houses, Lighthouses, Windmills, Characters, Mugs and Dishes, to Kitchenware, Valentine, Easter, Sports and Salt and Pepper Shakers. Not much text, but a beautiful picture and price guide. Ceramic collectors will enjoy it.

This book contains the year 2000 Values. The World of Ceramics is filled with a variety of ceramics. Including Enesco, Ucagco, Kreiss, Wales, Etc. Many were made in Japan. In the 1950s, you could find ceramics in five and dime stores and souvenir shops for 19-99 cents. Today any of the older ceramics that you find are increasing in value due to rarity and demand of the ceramics. Also added to this are a few pieces of Kreiss Ceramics that were not pictured in the Kreiss Ceramics book by the same authors. This book contains over 500 Color Photos.
